Qurum Beach, at the edge of the Qurum Nature Reserve, stretches for four kilometres along the Muscat coastline, in the heart of Muscat city. Its shallow waters and comparatively longer duration of high tides make it a family friendly location. The clean waters of the Gulf of Oman are perfect for rejuvenation and relaxation, away from the hustle and bustle of the city life.

Comparable to virgin beaches due to its natural and scenic wonders, the Qurum Beach is perfect for all visitors! The Muscat coastline offers splendid views of the open sea and a range of activities, allowing visitors to lounge and luxuriate after a hard day's work.
