The Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque of Nizwa is one of the key religious sites in Oman. It is part of a series of grand mosques commissioned by the late Sultan Qaboos bin Said across the country. It is characterized by its grand dome, elegant minarets, and intricate decorative details. Inside, the mosque boasts beautifully designed prayer halls with exquisite chandeliers, marble floors, and intricate woodwork. The mosque is open to both Muslims and non-Muslims during specific visiting hours
